

FINANCIAL PLANNING STANDARDS BOARD IRELAND DAC

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions are between you and Financial Planning Standards Board Ireland DAC (“FPSB”) and are governed by our Bye-Laws. By entering into a “business relationship” with FPSB (becoming a Visitor or Licensee) you agree to be legally bound by and accept these Terms and Conditions. Please take the time to read these terms carefully and only proceed with the “business relationship” if you are fully satisfied with the contents herein.

General

1. The following constitute the continuing obligations of licensed CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professionals:
 - (A) Acceptance of the Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility and of the Practice Standards and disciplinary process as set out in articles of association of FPSB Ireland and/or Bye-Laws of FPSB Ireland, as applicable from time to time,
 - (B) Adherence to continuous professional development requirements as set out from time to time in Bye Laws and/or Council resolutions,
 - (C) Continue to hold a Recognised Financial Advice qualification. For this purpose, a Recognised Financial Advice qualification is a qualification that is recognised by the Central Bank of Ireland under its Minimum Competency Code in respect of all of the following categories of Retail Financial Product: Life Assurance, Pensions, Savings and Investment, Housing Loans, Home Reversion Agreements and Associated Insurances, and Consumer Credit and Associated Insurances.
 - (D) Payment of such annual or other fees as may be prescribed by the Council of FPSB Ireland
 - (E) Undertaking to seek renewal of certification as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER professional every three years in accordance with the terms from time to time specified by Council.
2. Your CFP® license remain the property of FPSB and should your license lapse, or if you fail to comply with the requirements for retaining the license, you are required to return the license certificate to FPSB.
